Your membership in the SHF is very important to us!

We do not receive funding from federal, state, county, or city sources. We need your support for our activities and we rely on membership dues for our finances. We have some great activities and programs done for this year!

Did you know

This year we had two lectures: An Alaskan Adventure--A Story of Finding Gold in the Far North- 1800s by Randy Zamke and California Bound: Opening the West—1840 to 1846 by Robert Keahey

Three exhibits:

Superstition and Food

Believe it or Not--- Did You Know – 100 Facts about Saratoga

And the always-- popular exhibit, the Holiday exhibit coming in November

Educational Programs:

Over 450-500 school children visited our Museum. They are 2nd, 3rd and some 5th graders and learn about pioneer living.

Newsletter:

Members receive 5-6 newsletters (8 pages) a year packed with articles about local history and events.

Walking Tours:

We keep history alive by providing docent led tours of the Village and of historic Oak Street
